Vishwas has over his career, coached more than more than 20 managers across 7 organisations.

Vishwas has learnt to be an excellent coach from his vast experience as a mentor / leader in Philips as also from professional coaching experience over last few years

In addition, Vishwas has successfully coached several corporate managers across industries and across hierarchy, on personal effectiveness in chosen areas

Vishwas is known for:

- His conceptual clarity
- His out-of-the-box thinking
- His initiative

His high focus on customer needs and business results.

With his experience and this unique combination of exposure, Vishwas is well placed to deliver the objectives effectively to the audiences across industries.

Vishwas started coaching as he felt that with his corporate experience, he definitely has something to share with other professionals in leadership positions – and his innate love of helping others drove him to coaching.

What makes Vishwas stand out as a coach is his extreme customer centricity!
